

LOU GOURMAND

NEWS FOR FOOD LOVERS

Autumn-Winter 2008

Welcome to our Autumn Winter Newsletter

We have been quiet on the newsletters for some times, but exciting things have been happening behind the scenes at Lou Gourmand, let us share with you!

New Menu

We have new menus to share with you. First, our Halloween Menu, inspired by the harvest and all Hallows eve, the menu includes exciting items for you to sink your teeth into.

On our website www.lougourmand.com

New Year's Time

We are very excited about our new Christmas menu. We will be serving a special traditional menu designed to deliver the indulgence and comfort of Christmas, while taking the hassle of preparation away! And as Christmas and New Year is a time for celebration, we are offering a Canapé, or Petit Fours menu full of mouth watering verrines, succulent meats, and aromatic breads – sure to bring something extra special to your party. As always, all of our canapés are made fresh, offering a enjoyable yet affordable alternative to frozen supermarket brands.

And for those foodies out there, our menu will include, by special order, a delicious canapé of Foie Gras. A traditional French gourmet food, it is that perfect special something for the Christmas table.

In other news, to meet the demands of our increasing business, we have taken on a Sales and Marketing Manager, Angela Williams.

Originally, from California, USA, Angela has spent 6 years in England, 5 of which were spent modelling in the South West. She talks about her passion for food, inspired by growing up on a ranch; “My grandfather’s ranch was a riot of fresh food; we always picked our snacks and dinner fresh, and sourced all of our ingredients locally. I loved the community feel, and the bonding our family created by taking time centred around food. I am delighted to be a part of such an inspiring team as Lou Gourmand and look forward to meeting you all in the near future!”.

Thank you to all of our existing customers, it has been a pleasure to serve you as we come up to our second Christmas as a company.

It has been a great year so far and we are looking forward to many more to come. As we are expanding, we encourage you to try more of the services we provide – it’s time to treat yourself and those you love to an exquisite dining experience. Watch out in your local cafes for our jams and other sundries soon to be added to the list – and don’t forget our beautifully presented gift baskets. Perfect for that hard to buy for person, boss, co-worker, or grandparents, there is something in there for everyone. After all, who doesn’t enjoy food?

Bon appétit,
